

Ayşe Celik, a teacher, was sentenced to 15 months in jail for her brief comment during a popular television talk show, in April 2017.

Calling for an end to years-long clashes between Turkish security forces and Kurdish militants, Celik had only said: "Don't let children get killed!"

Last month, she was put behind bars to serve her sentence, leaving behind her newborn, an 18-month-old baby girl.

FROM:

— TAKE ACTION — TO FREE IMPRISONED MOTHERS OF CONSCIENCE IN TURKEY ON “MOTHER’S DAY”

Please join us to send this message to the international community and stand by the advocates of human rights on “International Mother’s Day”

#FreePrisonersOfConscience
#MothersDay #Turkey

www.silencedturkey.org

Dear

TO:

Created by AST, Use Freely